Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Deep River School, County of Lee, State of North Carolina, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred, sixth-three, are leaving our Alma Mater.

After enjoying twelve years of school, work and activities, and having attained our goal, we do hereby make, declare, and publish this, our Last Will and Testament, to the students who follow in our ways.

ARTICLE I

To the Undergraduates:

We, the Senior Class of 1963 do will and bequeath our titles and privileges. May you use them in honorable and useful ways.

ARTICLE II

Upon the principal and faculty, we bestow our love and gratitude.

ARTICLE III

To Mrs. Millikin, our sponsor, we leave our love and most sincere appreciation for her endless work as our Junior and Senior sponsor.

ARTICLE IV

To the Individuals:

I, PHILLIP BRIDGES, do leave my ability "to drink mash and talk trash" to anyone who has as much fun as I do.
I, JERRY BROWN, do leave my height to William Bass.
I, CHARLIE CARPENTER, do leave my seven year English course to Betty.
I, WAYNE DOWDY, do leave my tremendous height to Joe Luck and my bus to Mike.
I, JIMMY GAINES, do leave my ability to become a Senior to my brother Lynn and my hair to Mr. Ragan.
I, ROY GAINES, do leave my ability to work in the concession stand every night to someone speedy.
I, TOMMY GUNTER, do leave my bus to any other wreckless driver.
I, MICKEY JOHNSON, do leave my position in basketball to Sandy High.
I, PHILLIP JOHNSON, do leave nothing. Where I'm going I'll need everything.
I, JERRY KELLY, do leave anything I have to anyone who wants it.
I, BARRY MARKS, do leave my ability to do nothing and get by with it to anyone crazy enough to try it.
I, JOHNNY MATHEWS, do leave my curly hair to Mr. Morrison.
I, MONTY PICKARD, do leave my ability to go to I. E. C. to Tony Ragan.
I, BILLY RICHARDSON, do leave my ability to fall in love with a young teacher(?) to David Dowdy.
I, FRANCES WILMOTH, do leave my pleasing personality to (?) and my dark complexion to Glynn Harrington.
I, JUDY COE, do leave my position in basketball to anyone clumsy enough to fulfill it. John I'll marry someday.
I, BARBARA DENKINS, do leave my ability to bounce while talking to Brenda Gunter to Ernestine Poindexter.
I, RUBY JOHNSON, do leave my quiet and studious ways to Brenda Kelly--hope she'll do as well as I have.
I, ALICE POINDEXTER, do leave my excess to Brenda Perkinsion, my superlative to everybody, and all my good memories I'll keep.
I, GAIL PORTER, do leave my height to Martha Causey and my ability to get along with teachers to my sister, Nancy.

Prophecy

Well, it's May 1983, twenty years since my graduation. We are supposed to have our reunion today and I can't be there. I wonder what they are doing. — I know what, what I can do? There is a wonderful palmist down on main street, maybe she can help me.

All at once I am gazing into her crystal ball. Oh look, there is Judy Riddle and Gail Porter talking of their work in hospitals. Judy has her degree as a medical technologist and she is also an instructor at Duke University. I understand that Gail is a medical secretary at John Hopkins Hospital in Washington, D.C.

Phillip Johnson, Jerry Kelly and Barry Marks are all teachers. Phillip is teaching science at Harvard, any new inventions? Jerry has taken Mrs. Thomas's position at old D. R. Are the girls still chasing you, Jerry? Barry has taken over as principal at Deep River replacing Mr. Morrison.

There is Phyllis Rogers and Ruby Johnson. Phyllis, I understand has worked her way up to be private secretary to the President of the United States. Ruby has done very well also. She is the secretary to the superintendent of Lee-Sanford School.

Who is that in that big ten gallon hat? Why it's Roy Gaines. Oh, he is a successful rancher in Texas. Keep up the good riding, Roy. Tommy Gunter says he is part owner of Ragan and Gunter Poultry Farm. Jerry Brown owns three hundred acres of tobacco.

I hear a screeching of tires. That must be Phil Bridges in his 609 H.P. car.

There is Betty and Milton Wilder with their six children. It certainly looks like you are going to have to get a larger trailer. Here comes Virginia and Walter Tysinger with their very attractive daughter, Angela. My, how she grown.

There is Wayne Dowdy advertising the movies that are showing at his drive-in theaters. Jimmy Gaines is the owner of Gaines Truck Stop. He also has his own truck lines. Charlie Carpenter, I understand, owns a chain of service stations throughout the United States.

I wonder who's twins they are. Why they are Linda Sloan's. Twins must really run in your generation Linda. There's Barbara Denkins and her husband, Gary Sharpe. He is the owner of The Sharpe Brick Yard. Billy Richardson is foreman of the hackers at Sanford Brick and Tile.

Johnny Matthews is telling everyone to be sure and come to the Lee County Fair. He is the director of the fair and he is also president of the Lyons Club. Mickey Johnson is manager of his own professional basketball team.

I hear that Monty Pickard is up for a promotion as corporal in the National Guard. Francis Wilmoth is head inspector at Newport News Shipyards.

It seems that someone is missing. — It's Alice Poindexter. I read in the newspaper yesterday that she is a prominent nurse at Cape Canaveral. She is to give the last minute check-up to an astronaut who is preparing to leave for Mars.

Oh dear, it's getting late. I must be going home. I can hardly wait to tell John of my experience.

Class History

In 1951, 14 of the present 25 seniors started out in a new phase of life. Miss Belle took us under her "wing" that year. While dodging erasers, we finally accomplished the fundamentals. Betty Wilder joined us in March.

Mrs. Edith West was our second grade teacher. We learned to tell time and made clocks. Phillip Johnson and Billy Richardson joined us this year.

In the third grade we were under the patient guidance of Mrs. Jane Kennedy. All of us will remember the fire engine and station that we constructed. We also made puppets and gave a puppet play. Jerry Kelly joined us this year.

Miss Lamn was our fourth grade teacher. We gave a play, "Sleeping Beauty." Barbara Denkins joined us this year.

In the fifth grade, Mrs. Vera Lentz was our teacher. We visited the Planetarium in Chapel Hill. A spelling contest was held all year, and at the end the winner received a prize. Judy Riddle joined us this year.

Our sixth grade teacher was Miss Cornelia Cheek. We sold vanilla flavoring this year. We will always remember the first taste of world history that we learned.

In the seventh grade Mrs. Frances Wicker was our teacher. We sold seeds, visited Durham and Chapel Hill. Here we toured many interesting places. Charlie Carpenter joined us this year.

In our eighth grade of schooling our teacher was Mrs. Rochelle Fulton. This year we had the joy of going to the State Fair. We also sold seeds.

At last high school! Mr. C. P. Farmer was our Freshman sponsor. This year we were responsible for the decorations for the Farewell Party for the Seniors. The theme was "Space Age." Jerry Brown joined us this year.

Reaching the tenth grade, we were more experienced and were beginning to feel more at ease. Under the leadership of Mr. Norman Smith, we sponsored a sock hop and sold stationery. We also served as waitresses and waiters at the Junior-Senior Banquet. Gail Porter joined us this year.

Under the skillful guidance of Mrs. A. R. Millikin, we began to discover the work that lay before us. We sold candy, magazines, ordered our class rings. Our Junior-Senior Banquet, "The Gay 90's" and our Junior play, "A-Feudin Over Yonder," are memories for us all.

Finally the year that we had hoped for—our senior year! Again under the leadership of Mrs. Annie R. Millikin, we gradually passed through the months of waiting. This year we sold candy, newspaper subscriptions, and conducted other hard-working but enjoyable money raising events. We will always look back on our Senior trip to Washington and New York, the Junior-Senior Banquet honoring us, our friends, and the many other parties and activities that we will always remember as golden treasures. Virginia Tysinger and Francis Wilmoth joined us this year.

Finally graduation-we received our diplomas and made the long-awaited but sad departure from our beloved school. In our hearts and minds are stored the precious memories of our twelve years of school. We will always value the education that we have obtained, for we know the importance of the never ceasing knowledge that is in the world today.
